

ADELE DAFFLON

I was born in Fribourg, Switzerland, in 1985. In 2012, I graduated in illustration at Ecole Supérieure des Arts Saint-Luc Liège, in Belgium. The same year, I began to draw birth announcement cards. Slowly but surely I have been recognized for what I have done. As a result, I have been contacted to contribute to different individual and collective projects. Since January 2018, I share a studio with four great people. I love drawing anything with regards to the nature, animals, insects, always in a very colorful style and genuine humour. Beside my artistic life, I am also the co-owner of a famous café in Fribourg. My days are always different what gives me a lot of energy and motivation.

Our mission is Great Available Art by Great Available Artists. Be sure to check out the right hand pages, which predominantly feature new, and available book samples. E: mail@advocate-art.com
