

Daniel is a Portuguese illustrator currently based in Poland. For as long as he can remember, he's always had a passion for drawing which resulted in him becoming a professional illustrator in 2014. Since then, he has collaborated with several publishers and companies across twenty countries and five continents. His biggest strength is his versatility: politics, health, environment, lifestyle and corporate are among his favourite subjects. Some of his clients include Amnesty International, L'Express, Frankfurter Allgemeine Zeitung, National Geographic Traveler, The Lancet, Newsweek and Nikkei Asia. Daniel is a Communication Arts shortlisted artist, American Illustration 40 Chosen Winner and a 3x3 Magazine Merit Award winner. When he works he prefers listening to music to help him focus while outside of his working hours he likes spending time with his girlfriend and their orange cat, Hobbes.
