

Cui Ke is an award-winning illustrator and animator based on New York City and China. Her influences come from the Chinese and Japanese cultures and are expressed in her life as a Chinese lived in New York . Combining western and eastern cultures together, her work showcases a style that can reach a broad and diverse audience. Most of her artworks are produced using digital media or gouache.

CLIENTS INCLUDE:

