

Maria Kovalchuk is an illustrator and designer who loves using bold shapes and gradients to create eye-catching and memorable visuals. She is always looking for new ways to push the boundaries of her creativity and is passionate about creating work that is both appealing and memorable. Maria is a skilled painter and loves to bring her illustrations to life in a variety of mediums. She has created illustrations for everything from logos to packaging, website design, and more. Maria will create bold, eye-catching visuals that will help your brand stand out.

CLIENTS INCLUDE:

