

Pamela (Xinyu) Chen, is an illustrator and designer from China. She earned her BFA illustration degree from Columbus College of Art & Design (CCAD) in the US in 2020. She has always been passionate about discovering wonderful messages in life and turning them into inspiration for creating art. Much of Pamela's work is influenced by music, movies, fashion and collecting vintage toys. She is open to all possibilities to improve herself as an illustrator. Her current interests include fashion illustration, children's books, editorial, advertising, packaging and more.

CLIENTS INCLUDE:

