

SIMON MENDEZ

Simon was born in York on his birthday. Above all else He has always loved to draw and takes particular pleasure in rendering images in exquisite detail often with an enchanting ethereal quality. He concentrates enormous efforts on conceiving mood lighting and creating compositions that are dynamic and engaging to draw the eye. He also enjoys doodling! Away from the drawing board he likes to build pieces of furniture, has a passion for wildlife conservation and spends time exploring the wild world with his wife and kids and the dog.
