DISTINCT . DIVERSE

Caterina was born in Puglia, in the south of Italy. She has always loved to draw. Since she was a child she invented stories and she put them on paper, she designed characters and she used to draw everywhere in her grandfather's country house. She was enchanted looking at picture books to catch every little detail. When she was 19 she moved to Rome and then Turin to study Visual Arts and Set Design at The Academy of Fine Arts. Caterina's works is inspired mostly by nature, everyday life, old photos and childhood memories. She loves to take care of even the smallest details within an illustration.
