Gabriella was born in Naples now lives in the hills near Cesena. As a child, she was enchanted by Impressionist paintings. She previously studied illustration at Scuola Internazionale di Comics. Gabriella's work is inspired by Expressionism, Surrealism and old advertising posters. She likes distorting reality and drawing ordinary objects in a different to normal. This way, their uniqueness is revealed. Gabriella works digitally and through screen printing. Her illustrations have been selected at the Illustrators Exhibition Bologna Children's Book Fair 2018 and 2015. When working, Gabriella listens to new wave, indie, shoegaze and jazz music.
